JUST LIKE A GIRL.

An Excursion and a Horse Who Answered to the Name of Jim.

Two girls once went on a driving trip with a very pleasant livery horse named Jim.-The third day they stopped for lunch and to rest the horse at an inn, the stable of which was crowded with the horses of that was going on in the village. These various animals a somewhat intoxicated stable boy managed to mix up, and, when asked to harness Jim again, he had to admit that he was uncertain as to which horse belonged to the young ladies. "Why, of course," they cried, "we'd know Jim anywhere; a brown horse with a white nose." Taken to the stable they found themselves confronted with innumerable brown horses, all of whose noses were white. "Horses look terribly alike with their harness off," confessed the girls, "but," brightening, "our horse knows his name. Jim! Jim!" At the sound, one of the brown beasts stretched out his neck and neighed intelligently. "That's he," cried the girls; "good old Jim knows us, even if we don't know him. Besides now

"if you're sure it's your horse" we look at him closely, we recognize his

The girls drove off and finished their tour successfully, though once or twice Jim gave evidence of mannerisms that they had not remarked before. "And how did Jim suit you?" asked the livery-stable keeper, from whom they had hired their rig, when they finally drove back into his vard. "Nice horse, Jim, best I have in the stable. But in the name of mercy," in

MARKETS MOVING ALONG STEADILY; CONDITIONS UNCHANGED.

Quotations on All Staples Remain Strong-A Very Good Volume of Business Doing-Outlook Good.

The wholesale merchants report conditions of trade practically without change. Quotations in all lines continue steady to strong, with buyers taking hold in very satisfactory manner. The outlook for the coming season is considered good. The capacity of the public for consumption is evidenced by the promptness with which bills are lited, and the prosperous conditions which have prevailed for the past year are regarded as almost certain to continue through the coming season. The crops in the ction of the country that sends its trade to Indianapolis have been good, and the consumers in the towns and villages of this and neighboring States which deal with the jobbers in this city will unquestionably have money to spend freely for their winter supplies. Country produce is in fairly good supply, and prices remain strong. On Comon row a brisk business is doing. The revised quotations given to-day show unimportant changes, mostly in the way of slight declines in home-grown vegetables.

The Local Grain Market.

The grain market remains very dull. Receipts are small. The Board of Trade report shows inspections of only 17 cars of corn and 4 of oats—none of wheat. Wheat was again quoted weaker, with nominal quotations on corn and oats. Hay is wanted at higher prices. The secretary of the Board of Trade sives out the following as the secretary of the delices of the secretary of the Board of clear backs, 20 to 30 lbs average, 12c; 14 to 16 lbs average, 12c; 15 to 22 lbs average, 12c; 14 to 16 lbs average, 12c; 15 to 27 lbs average, 12c; 15 t Trade gives out the following as the prices ibs average, 12c; 9 to 10 lbs average, 121/2c. MARKET CLOSES STEADY, BUT DULL AND BELOW THE BEST.

Early Fluctuations Are Feverish and Erratic-Liquidation Is Prominent in Steel Securities.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 .- Yesterday's late events in the stock market aroused serious apprehension that disastrous results might be witnessed to-day. As is often the case in speculative matters, the threatened harm incited efforts to counteract it. There were strong protective measures adopted in the stock market to check the decline in prices which threatened the violent shrinkage of credits. There were feverish and erratic fluctuations during the greater part of the morning, but the supporting measures finally proved effective and the market quieted down and became steady at a level of values substantially above last night. There was some unsettlement again in the final dealings but the pressure was resisted and the market closed steady and dull, but below the best. The liquidation was continued with considerable force this morning, especially in the United States Steel securities. Both classes of stock and the second mortgage bonds opened at new low records, and kept the early market unsettled in spite of support by powerful financial interests at other points. When the fact developed that the buying to support the market did not follow the advance in prices to any extent the bears made a determined drive in an attempt to regain the upper hand. They centered the attack on United States Steel preferred, apparently equipped with knowl-Age of the existence of a considerable stop-loss order in that stock at about 62. Its movement after touching that point proved the accuracy of the bears' information or surmise, the price slumping to with a rapid recovery, however, on covering by the shorts. The common stock touched 16 and the bonds 70% during the day. The general market weakened again in response to this drive, but prices generally got slightly below last night's level. The uncovered bears took alarm at this demand and at $4.82.35@4.82.40 for sixty days' evidence of effective support and bought pal active stocks afterwards got from 1 to railroad bonds irregular. 2 points over last night.

in some securities for which there is not

714c; Lancaster, 614c; Lancaster dress, 714c; Toil | an active market, but speculative sentiment on the whole was considerably improved as a result of the day's events. The firmness of the later market was helped by the preliminary estimates of the week's currency movement which promise a merely nominal change in the cash hold-ings of the banks. The large shipments of currency to the South and a small loss on subtreasury operations proper were slightly more than offset by reports from other sources, including new gold. The heavy liquidation in the stock market gives fair promise of some reduction in the loan item and the deposit liabilities. Money was rather firmer, however, both for time loans and on call and a further fall in New York exchange at Chicago brought the market nearer to the point for shipping currency West. There was a sharp break in sterling exchange which was partly in response to the firmer money market here. There was also a larger supply of commercial bills in the exchange market. It is said that some of the interior banks are selling demand bills of exchange here against purchase of grain and cotton bills. The week's exports of wheat show an increase of more than 2,000,000 bushels over the previous week and the decline in the cotton market, it is believed, will induce an increased foreign demand. The bond market was quite active and irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,925,-000. United States twos declined 1/2 per cent. on the last call. Following are the day's share sales and the recorded price changes:

WHEAT CLOSES STRONG, WITH CORN STEADY AT A SLIGHT GAIN.

sions Slump Off-Long Wheat Comes Out on Stop-Loss Orders.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25 .- Wheat and corn were irregular, the former closing strong, with December %6% higher, the latter steady for the same month at a gain of %@%c. Oats ruled steady at better prices, December closing a shade higher, while provisions were easier, with a loss of

At the opening there was good buying by local shorts, with some demand for the long account on strong outside markets and steady cables. December was up 1/sc to %c at 76%c to 77c, and soon advanced to 77%c, with a marked bullish sentiment. After holding steady at the advance for a time the market gradually eased off on the resumption of liquidation, due to a favorable aspect in the stock situation at Minneapolis, and favorable reports from abroad, with lack of outside supporting orders. Long wheat came out on stop orders, and the weakness that developed carried December down to 761/sc before the mood changed on reports of good export business. The close was steady, with the loss entirely regained-77%c for December-at %@%c above yesterday's figures. Foreigners bought freely early in the session, and the trading was moderately active and of good volume. Bradstreet's exports for the week of wheat and flour were 3,050,000 bushels, against 1,909,000 bushels last week and 5,077,000 bushels a year ago. Clearances were equal to 279,300 bushels. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 572 cars, which, with per cent.; closing bid, 214 per cent.; offered local receipts of 63 cars-four of contract sixty days, 51/2 per cent.; ninety days, 6 per cent.; six months, 6 per cent. Uncertainty manition and the break in wheat influenced corn demand and some damage reports giving the market a steady feeling with prices back near the top. December closed at 461/4c, a gain of %61/4c, after ranging between 46%c and 451/4c. Local receipts were 485 cars, with 41 grading contract.

ing most of the session, but in the last hour weakened with other grains. There was a slight rally at the close and December was a shade better at 374c, ranging between 37%c and 36%c. Local receipts were 129 cars. Selling for outside account in sympathy with lower prices for hogs at the yards greasy, gave the provision list an easier feeling, but the market was saved a marked decline by a fair demand from brokers and Wool.

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—The Commercial Bulletin to-morrow will say: "Wool is very firm. There is still an active inquiry for medium and low wools, and Boston dealers have bought heavily this week in Ohio, Michigan and other sections at extreme prices, practically cleaning up all such wool available in the West. In Ohio 2314c has been paid and in Michigan 22c flat. This also were good buyers and helped the up- has been paid and in Michigan 22c flat. This ward tendency. Before noon, however, means fully 23@27c in Boston. The purchases do not show a profit on to-day's market, but, as it a reaction and the market lost all of the is a long time to the new clip and foreign substitutes are practically shut out, dealers believe fested in the stock list curtailed specula-tion and the break in wheat influenced corn values. Toward the end of the session there was a rally on improvement in export that there will be a handsome profit in the near 845,791 lbs for the same period last year." LONDON, Sept. 25.—The offerings at the wool auction sales to-day numbered 131,614 bales. Medium merinos were in better demand for Germany. CHOICE CATTLE IN GOOD DEMAND. SELLING AT STRONGER PRICES.

Hogs Fairly Active at About Previous Figures-Sheep Steady-Condition of Other Markets.

UNION STOCKYARDS, INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 25.-Cattle-Receipts, 1,600; shipments, 500. In some instances at least the cattle represented to-day were better than any heretofore this week, and there were probably more that were nearer up to the requirements of buyers than there has been for several days. A large number were on the unfinished order and, as usual, some were very common. The market opened with a good demand for all choice stock, which sold from the start at strong prices, but possibly not quotably higher in a general way compared with yesterday. There was also a better outlet for the medium to good fat kinds than there has been for several days and prices were quotably steady, but the trading was a little sluggish. The demand for common to fair cattle was again unimportant, and, as usual for some time past, it was very difficult for buyers and sellers to agree on the state of the st very difficult for buyers and sellers to agree on prices. In fact, the stocker and feeder trade to-day was almost demoralized. The supply was the demand from rural districts was all the demand from rural districts was all the demand from rural districts was the demand from rural di liberal, the demand from rural districts was disappointing, and sales indicate that very little business was transacted in this line. Sellers no Dunn, $8; Halton, $10; Charles King, $10; doubt would have been willing to have made a sacrifice in prices to move the supply, but there was no outlet, and a very large number had to be carried over without having received a bid.

Hogs-Receipts, 450; shipments, 1,500. There were not as many light pigs and common hogs in the consignments to-day as there has been in the consignments to-day as there has been recently, and the quality generally was reported more satisfactory than that represented earlier in the week. The market opened with a very fair request from practically all sources for the choice light to medium weight hogs, and all that answered this description sold at least as high as yesterday. There was no urgent request for the very light hogs or the extremely heavy gradea, and while they were probably not quotably lower, salesmen had a little more difficulty in consummating sales at yesterday's prices. The in consummating sales at yesterday's prices. The supply of suitable hogs was hardly large enough to accommodate all orders, and for that reason buyers, especially shippers, were not as trious as they might otherwise have been. ertheless the trading was reasonably active and a good clearance of the early arrivals was made at opening prices. There were not many hogs arrived on late trains, in fact, not enough to affect the market in any way, and closing sales were steady at opening prices. The extreme range to-day was from $6 to $6.35, the bulk of the supply sold at $6.25@6.30, and there were more at $6.30 than any other price. Quotations: Good to choice medium to heavy ... 120 86 40 Sheep-Receipts, 500; shipments, 500. The market opened with nearly all buyers in the field, and there was a very fair demand for both sheet and lambs of good quality and proper weight, but the common stock and those a little below the requirements at this time in weight were slow sellers and possibly 25c lower than they terday's decline in prices, but a few dealers be-lieved they got rather stronger prices for the best selections. The supply proved to be large enough to complete all orders, and on that account the trading was only reasonably active, but a satis-factory clearance was finally made at opening prices. Selected lambs weighing nearly 180 lbs sold at $5.75, but $5.50 was virtually the top for good kinds, and other sales ranged from $4 to $5.40. Sheep sold as high as $3.40, and rather ordinary to good kinds at $2.50@3.35. Bucks brought $2.50@3. Quotations: Good to choice lambs. Common to medium lambs. Common to best yearlings ...
